

AN INTRODUCTION TO DIGNITARY AND EXECUTIVE PROTECTION PRINCIPLES

Overview

This one-day seminar introduces the security professional to the exciting and challenging world of Dignitary and Executive Protection. Presented by a former senior U.S. State Department, Diplomatic Security Special Agent, the presentations will provide an overview of the philosophy and methodology incumbent with the protection of international dignitaries, executives, celebrities, politicians, and religious leaders. The "business" of providing/operating a Protective Security operation is also addressed. This seminar is designed for security professionals who have an interest in the dynamic field of dignitary and or executive protection and is considered a prerequisite to taking the three-day Dignitary and Executive Protection Principals and Procedures course.

Seminar Topics include:

Overview of the Protective Security Industry

Compare and Contrast Dignitary, Celebrity and Executive Protection Missions

Overview of the Organization and Operations of a Protective Detail

Overview of Vehicular Security/Motorcade Operations

Overview of Protective Security Formations

Risk Management

Assessing and Mitigating Threats

Overview of Protective Security Countermeasures

Protective Security Advances

Professional Conduct

The Business and Logistics of Protection

Target Audience – Security Professionals—to include licensed private investigators and security officers.